Milorad Peji?

On various continents, at airports, at stadiums, everywhere I meet people who more than twenty years ago, escaping war like I, settled far and wide around the world.

I feel they are there around me, who they are and where from, but I don't notice them right away since they are indistinguishable in the crowd. They are as ordinary as I until we look one another in the eye and recognize each other by the madness that still endures.
